

MRS. BURNHAM'S WILL STANDS.

A jury before Surrogate Slater, at White Plains, decided yesterday that no undue influence had been exercised upon Mrs. Matilda E. Burnham of 528

North Main street, Port Chester, when she made her will, two hours before her death, but held that she was incompetent when the will was made.

She made no mention of her son, Frederick D. Burnham, an incompetent, now at Hudson River State Hospital, at Poughkeepsie. In the will it was stated that her husband, Capt. William E. Burnham, had provided a fund of $15,000, which was sufficient for the needs of the son.

STREET ENTRANCE TO VAST STORESSUMMER CAMP CLOTHES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

The outfits worn by boys and girls at summer camps have proved so practical that they are now generally accepted as the standard type of dress for general out-door wear and are used as play clothes by boys and girls visiting fashionable summer resorts.

Our distinctive models in bloomers and blouses for girls and camp suits for boys are very smartly designed and are made from the most durable imported fabrics.

We also present complete assortments of sweaters, Scotch wool hosiery, head-wear and "Anniped" camp shoes for boys and girls.
